Using The Army List

The following army list allows you to field an Iron Warriors Chaos Space Marine army based on The Warsmith's 4th Grand Company of the IronWarriors. It can also be used as a 'stand in' army list for other IronWarrior armies. Note that the army does not include Chaos Cultists, which is being covered instead by the separate The Lost and the Damned army list, nor Renegade Chapter Space Marines, which can be represented with the Codex Astartes army list.

IronWarrior Grand Companies are organised into formations called retinues or companies which can be Core Formations or Support Formations. Each Core Formations allows you to field one Support Formation. Each retinue or company (regardless if it is a Core or a Support Formation) is made up of four or more units and may also include a number of extra units called upgrades. The formations that may be taken are shown on the chart below. The chart also shows what units comprise the formation, what upgrades are allowed, and its points cost. For example, a Retinue consists of eight Chaos Space Marine units and a Chaos Lord character for 275 points, and may include a number of upgrades at an additional cost in points.

Each upgrade that is taken adds to the cost of the retinue or company, as shown on the upgrade chart. The upgrade chart also lists the units that make up the upgrade. Note that these will sometimes replace units in the detachment they are taking for, and sometimes take the form of additional units for the detachment. Each formation can only take a maximum of four (4) upgrades. Each upgrade may only be taken once per formation.

Iron Warriors armies may be supported by Chaos Navy aircrafts and LegioMortis Chaos Titan Legion battle groups. A maximum of up to a third of the points available to the army may be spent on these formations .

Special Rule

IW1.1.1 IronWarriors Warsmith

One Chaos Space Marine Lord character in the army must be selected to be the IronWarriors Warsmith which costs 50 points.

All other Chaos Space Marine Lord characters must be either Chaos Lords or Sorcerer Lords.

IW1.1.2 Chaos Lord Upgrade

The Chaos Lord upgrade can only be applied to one of the Core units of an IronWarrior Formation. For example, the Chaos Lord (or Chaos Warlord) upgrade for a Retinue could only be added to the Chaos Space Marine units in that formation. It could not be added to any units, such as Obliterators or Cult Marines purchased as an Upgrade.

IW2.0 Fortified Positions

An Iron Warriors army is allowed to purchase one set of fortified positions for its troops to occupy for each Retinue included in the army.

Fortified positions must be set up after Objectives, but before Spacecraft and Garrisons are deployed. They may be set up anywhere a vehicle may deploy in the Iron Warriors half of the table. You may split up a set of fortified positions as desired, as long as the rules for formation coherence are adhered to. For example, you could split up trenches into several lines, as long as there are 5cm 'links' between the different parts of the position. Fortified positions count as having move zero, and may 'garrison' (eg, they can be set up in positions that garrison units can be set up in). It goes without saying that they may not be transported, and any player that were considering transporting them onto the table should be deeply ashamed of themselves!

Once set up fortified positions may be used by any unit, not just units they were purchased for. They may be captured and used by enemy units too.

Iron Warriors Chaos Space Marine armies have a strategy rating of 4. All Iron Warriors and Legio Mortis Chaos Titan Legion formations have an initiative rating of 1+. Slave Formations have an initiative Rating of 3+. Chaos Navy aircraft formations have an initiative rating of 2+.

Chaos Obliterator

Obliterators have dwelt to long in the Eye of Terror and have contracted a contagion that sears their flesh to their armour. Marine and armour become one entity, growing down the centuries into hulking, weirdly baroque leviathans able to reshape their forms to spew death at their enemies. Obliterators are no longer even Chaos Space Marines instead they are an amalgam of Marine, Daemon and Armour, each part inseparable from the rest.

Notes: Fearless, Reinforced Armour, Teleport, Thick Rear Armour.

Chaos Slave

The Warsmith used many slaves as the first assault wave in the siege of the fortress only to see how far the Imperiums artillery could reach. Almost all were wiped out but a few remained to serve as 'meat shield' for more valued troops.
Type	Speed	Armour	Close Combat	Firefight
Infantry	15cm	none	6+	6+

Lasguns	(15cm)	Small arms	-
Notes: Disposable. A formation entirely of Chaos Slaves causes no blastmarker on friendly supporting formations if it loses an assault.

Chaos Basilisk

The Iron Warriors are infamous for using artillery pieces much more common in the Imperial Guard.

Notes: May either shoot normally or fire barrage. May only use indirect fire ability when firing barrages.

Chaos Desecrator

One of the most recent threats to have appeared within the Black Legion forces is a spider-like walking monstrosity Imperial forces have dubbed Desecrators. The constructs are manifestations of madness and no two are exactly alike but they clearly share characteristics with the blasphemous defiler. Sitting atop six or eight scuttling legs the squat hull of the Desecrator is dotted with scanning arrays or searching daemonic eyes, scrutinising the sky for prey. With a piercing shriek, the daemon engine uses its primary weapon system to engage and destroy enemy aircraft, most commonly some form of diabolical sonic weapon although some have been encountered that spew warp-flame into the sky. The daemon engine is perfectly capable of defending itself against enemy infantry or tanks, turning secondary weapon systems against them or tearing them apart using its spiked legs.

Chaos Defiler

The Defiler was fashioned at the command of Abaddon the Despoiler. It is a six-legged, baroquely-forged machine with savage hooks and barbs along its limbs. Shrouded in noxious fumes, its engine a bestial growl, the Defiler lays waste to the ground it strides over and batters down the strongest defenses with its mighty battle cannon.

Chaos Carnage Class Cruiser

As each Chapter has its own fleet of spaceships it is no wonder that as they turn their gaze away from the light of the Emperor that they will take their ships with them. Once floating cathedrals of the Imperial Faith they are now bloody altars to the Ruinous Powers.

Each gun emplacement canhold one unit, and eachbunker canhold three units. Trenches canhold one infantry unit per 40mm of length.

Chaos Navy Units

Manufactured on corrupted forgeworlds and hired from treacherous subjects the forces of Chaos use a plethora of aerospace fighters. But most common are the HellBlade Interceptor and the Hell Talon Fighter-bomber, piloted by corrupted servitors, to haunt the world of the Imperium.

Chaos Hell Blade Interceptor

Scything through the air like screaming daggers the swift and agile HellBlades are well known to attack in hordes to bring down imperial aircrafts.

Chaos Siegelord Class Battle Titan

Unknown pattern, Standard Weapon Configuration

The Siegelord is a Warlord Class Titan especially equipped for storming heavy fortresses commonly deployed by the Iron Warriors. Giving up most of its ranged firepower for extra protective void shields and the ability to transport troops.

Type	Speed	Armour	Close Combat	Firefight
War Engine	15cm	4+	2+	4+
Weapon	Range	Firepower	Notes

Chaos Reaver Class Battle Titan

Chaos Warhound Class Scout Titan
Mars pattern, Standard Weapon Configuration

Filled by a predatory mind the Warhounds of Chaos stalk the battlefield to seek and hunt down new victims for their bigger brethren. If this move takes the Warhound into impassable terrain or another unit it can't move over then it stops when it contacts the obstruction and suffers an extra point of damage. If it staggers into or over any units then they will take a hit on a D6 roll of 6+ (make saving throws for the unit normally).

Notes: Fearless, Inspiring, Reinforced Armour, Walker. May step over units and impassable or dangerous terrain that is lower than the Titan's knees and up to 2cm wide. The plasma blastgun may either fire one shot and still have one shot 'in reserve' for next turn, or fire two shots and not shoot next turn at all.
